Save that of precipitancy it is impossible to conceive upon what ground the scheme in question found the least support. It is true it was stated that the Park was to be a place for sport and recreation; but save in these general terms, no explanation, information, or particulars were afforded as to what the so-called Park is to consixt of. A Park without trees is an anachronism and I presume that it cannot be intended to plant the valley, else the view of the Races would be destroyed. ABOUT A MARVELLOUS CURE. LIVING SIX YEARS WITHOUT GOING TO BED. Mr. EDITOR,—While spending a few days at the pleasant seaside town of Aberystwith, Cardi-ganshire, Wales, I heard related what seemed to me either a fabulous story or a marvellous oure. The story was that a poor sufferer who had not been able to lie down in bed for sixlong years, given up to die by all the Doctors, had been speedily cured by some Patent Medicine. It was related with the mere implicit confidence from the circumstance, as was said, that the Vicar Llanrystyd was familiar with the facts, and could vouch for the truth of the report. Having a little curiosity to know how such stories grow in travelling, I took the liberty while at the village of Llangstyd to call upon the Vicar, the Rev. T. Evans, and to enquire about this wonderful cure. Though a total stranger to him, both he and his wife most graciously entertained me in a half hour's conversation, principally touching the case of Mr. Pugh, in which they seemed to take a deep and sympathetic interest, baving been familiar with his sufferings, and now rejoiced in what seemed to them a most remarkable cure. The Vicar remarked that he presumed his name had been connected with the report from his faving mentioned the case to Mr. John Thomas, a chemist of Lianon. He said Mr. Pugh was formerly a resident of their parish, but was now living in the parish of Llanddeinol.

He strongly venched Mr. Wm. Pugh's character as a respectable farmer and worthy of credit. I left the venerable Vicar with a livelier sense of the happy relation of a paster and people, feeling that he was one who truly sympathised with all who are afflicted in mind, body, or estate. On my return to Aberystwith, I was impressed with a desire to see Mr. Pugh, whose reputation stood so high. His farm is called Pancom-Mawr, signifying "above the dingle," situated near the summit of a smooth round hill, overlooking a required. beautiful valley in which is situated the levely ivymentled Church of Llanddeinel. I found rany's Office. Mr. Pugh, apparently about 40 years old, of medium height, rather slight, with a pleasant and intelligent face. I told him I heard of his great affliction and of his remarkable and almost miraculous relief, and that I had come to learn

Mr. Pugh remarked that his neighbours had THROUGH TO NEW YORK, VIA UVERtaken a kindly and sympathetic interest in his LAND RAILWAYS, AND TOUCHING AT case for many years, but of late their interest had been greatly awakened by a happy change in his condition. I have continued to take the medicine daily now for something over two months, and I can lay down and sleep aweetly at nights and have not since had a recurrence of those terrible spasms and sweatings, I have been so long broken down and reduced in my whole system that I have not tried to perform any very hard ont-door labour, deeming it best to be prudent lest by over-exertion I may do myself injury before my strength is fully restored. I feel that my stomach and bowels have been and are being thoroughly renovated and renewed by the medicine. In fact I feel like a new man. Believing this remarkable case of Dyspepti

All the new words which the Chinese have of lax years been compelled to coin to express the manorous objects in machinery, photography, talegraphy, and in soience generally, which the ripid advance of resign relations has imposed upon them, are here given to extense. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti pronunciations are given the access of an attempt to make the Chinese and English type correspond in the size of body, thereby effecting a vast economy of space, nebiveing a clearness not previously attained, and dispensing with those wast marginand vacant spaces which have beretdore characters. and Madhurst's English and Chinese Dictionary about 100,000, whilst his work contains more than 50,000 English words, and upwards of 600,000 Chinese characters. Again, despite oil the grammurs and schor clementary works as yet published, the student of this difficult language absolutely requires examples to display the various applications and equivalents of different works which have one general meaning. Of these examples this work contains more than 50,000 English words, and upwards of 600,000 Chinese characters.
